An Aged Pioneer Passed to the Great Beyond

Uncle Andy Foster, one of the pioneers of this country and one of the oldest citizens of this township, died last Friday evening (November 30, 1906) after a long illness. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S.W. Beggs. Interment at the Hewitt cemetery. The following interesting sketch was written by the Honorable W.G. Cochran of Sullivan, a lifelong friend of the deceased:

Andy Foster was born in Ross County, Ohio, Sept. 24, 1816. He was the third son of eleven children of John Foster and Eleanor Morrow Foster. His parents were natives of Ireland and came from the county Cork to the United States about the close of the Revolutionary War. When they made the voyage they were unmarried and formed an acquaintance which resulted in their marriage in the state of Pennsylvania about 1801. They crossed the ocean in the same vessel and were about the same age.

John Foster was an Irish school master, and taught school in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Moultrie County, Ill. He was the kind of a teacher who enforced his ideas with the hickory switch and the hazel rod, and most of them that attended his school had good reason for never forgetting his manners and enforcements.

He moved from the state of Ohio to the state of Illinois in 1848 and settled northwest of Lovington about two and one-half miles where he lived with his family until the time of his death the 16th of Aug. 1852. His wife survived him ten years and died at Lovington on the 12th of Sept. 1862.

They reared a family of eleven children and this sketch is intended to perpetuate the history of the family. I will here set out the names and some of the facts about each of them.

Charles Foster married and died in Ohio leaving two children, W.B and C.E. Foster.

Rosanna Foster, the oldest daughter, married a man by the name of James Hamilton and died in Ohio, leaving two children, C.M. and Ellen Hamilton.

Margaret Foster married Jeremiah Thomas and died soon after and leaving no children.

James Foster came to Illinois about 1845 and lived in what is called the Crackerneck neighborhood. He died in Lovington on the 23rd day of Dec. 1877, leaving a large family of children.

John Foster was born July 25th 1814, and is now past 92 years old and is the only member of the family living. He married Margaret Lamb who died Nov. 14, 1905. They had a large family and live on a farm west of Lovington where they settled in 1848.

Susan, the wife of John Cochran, died in Lovington on Apr 10th 1884 leaving no children.

Eleanor, wife of Cyrus Welton, died in Moultrie County Nov. 23rd 1876 and left several children.

Isabelle, commonly called Aunt Ibbby, and Jane, commonly called Jennie, were twin sisters and were so much alike even in their old age that their relatives were often mistaken when they met them as to which one they were addressing. Isabelle married Captain Andrew Gregory (grandfather of James Gregory), a soldier of the war of 1812 in Pickaway County, Ohio, where he died several years after their marriage. She then moved to Lovington and lived there until the time of her death Feb 14th 1894. She left no children.

Jane married Andrew Cochran and moved to Illinois in 1849 and died upon the farm which they settled Nov. 20th 1879. She left five children.

Sarah Foster was never married. She died in Lovington June 22nd 1883.

Andrew Foster, the subject of this sketch, first married Lucinda Cochran in Ross County, Ohio in 1840.

She was one of the best Christian women I ever knew. They, with their two children, moved to Moultrie County, Illinois and arrive here the 13th of Nov. 1844. He has often told me he had just 75 cents in money and two teams of horses and wagons besides his household goods which he brought with him.

He settled on a tract of land two and one-half miles northwest of Lovington, where his first wife died Oct. 12, 1854 leaving four children, three of whom are still living. They are Elizabeth Dawson, mother of Grace Hostetler, Sarah and Alta, Mrs. Sarah A. Gregory, wife of James A. Gregory and mother of Charley, Lillian and Ginerva and Milton C. Foster of Chicago, Ill. The eldest son, John A. Foster, died of spinal meningitis Apr. 21, 1873.

A few years after the death of his first wife, Andrew again married. This time to Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis, widow of a Dr. Lewis of Ohio. There were born of this marriage five sons, all of whom are still living and have families of their own. One of them, Alva E. (Did) Foster, has served a term as sheriff of Moultrie County and his brother Frank as deputy sheriff. They are all in business for themselves in this county.

Andrew Foster was an honest, hard-working man and by his industry and economy he acquired a fortune. At one time, he owned eight hundred acres of land near the village of Lovington, now worth over a hundred thousand dollars. About 1892, he retired from active business and deeded his land to his children, reserving a homestead and an annual income sufficient to keep him and his wife during their lives. Since then, he has lived in the homestead in Lovington, enjoying the blessings of his friends and family. Having spent an honest, active life of many years, he has waited patiently the time of his departure. I want to record here that from a close acquaintance of more than fifty years with him, I believe him to be one of the most honest men I have ever known and besides always being charitable to the poor. In the early day people moving thru this country and would meet with misfortune or have sickness, and they would be compelled to stop and camp in the woods he was one of the early settlers who was always found ready to help them. I never heard him say a harmful word of anyone. If this large and respectable generation who bear his name would emulate his example I honesty and charity, there would be a great deal of good done in this world for which many people would be thankful. In this numerous family of 11 children and their descendants, I have never known but two lawsuits between members of different families. I have never known of one of the members of the family to be accused of a serious crime, and I believe none of them have been confined to the county jail charged with any crime. While there are many families, perhaps as good by nature and equally as good by practice as this Foster family, yet if the ancestors of John Foster Sr. could return and take a retrospect of all those who bear his name and relationship, he would have no regret that he left the Emerald Isle and crossed the briny deep in the same vessel with the one who he had never known before, but afterward became his life partner and the mother of this large and intelligent family.

These names and dates, if preserved by this generation, will enable them to trace their ancestry back, at least to the time when the first one by the name and relationship emigrated to the United States.

Andres Foster died Nov. 30, 1906, at about 4 p.m. after a long lingering illness. Funeral services were held on Sunday Dec. 2, 1906. His body was laid to rest with his many relatives and friends in the Hewitt grave yard there to wait the resurrection and as the years go by, some friend will place flowers in memory of good deeds and we will forget his failures, if he had any, and who has not?

The above was written by the Honorable W.G. Cochran and read by him at the funeral of Andrew Foster.

Transcribed from a book on the Foster family, the information of which was gathered and published by Amos L. "Cane" Munch in April 1947, by Joe Harris.

Joseph Hays Foster

Joseph H. Foster, a resident of this township for over eighty years, and the last of the Civil War veterans of this community, passed away at his home Wednesday evening, October 18 (1933). He had been in failing health for several weeks but, although never a man of great physique, he had never been ill to speak of before in his life.

Mr. Foster was one of twelve children, a son of the late John and Margaret Foster. He was born February 25, 1846, in Ross County, Ohio, near Circleville. He came with his parents to the Foster farm, northwest of Lovington, when he was two years old and had since lived in this community. He enlisted for service in the Civil War at Camp Butler, near Springfield, just after his eighteenth birthday and served until the close of the war.

The deceased was united in marriage to Emma Dunscomb, also a native of Ohio, in November, 1871. Two daughters, Mrs. L.T. Anderson and Mrs. G.W. Harris were born to this union. There are three grandchildren, Joe F. Harris of Detroit, Mich., Harold Harris of Lovington and Mrs. Maxine Halfyard of Danville and one great grand child. Also three brothers and three sisters as follows: Mrs. Sarah Gibeson of Rocky Ford, Colo., Robert of Lawton, Ia., Fletcher of Atwood and Mrs. N.E. Timmons, Mrs. Emma Howell and M.E. Foster of this place.

Mr. Foster was a farmer and had lived on several places in this community. He and Mrs. Foster moved to their late home 21 years ago. After the latter's death, August 28, 1926, his daughter, Mrs. Harris and family, moved in his home and had since cared for him. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist church of which he was a member. Rev. McKendree M. Blair, the pastor, assisted by Rev. H.R. Halfyard will be in charge. Interment will be at the Hewitt Cemetery. The pallbearers chosen are: Chas. W. Dixon, S.H. Curry, S.W. Jones, T.E. Pargeon, H.H. Clore and Ira McBride. There will be a military funeral at the grave.

Notes for EMMA SOPHIA DUNSCOMB:

Emma (Dunscomb) Foster

Mrs. Joseph H. Foster passed away Saturday afternoon (August 28, 1926), following a prolonged illness. Death was due to heart trouble and complications which had confined her to her home for a year or more and to her bed for the past few weeks. She lapsed into a state of coma several hours before the end came and passed away without regaining consciousness.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lovington Methodist Church, of which the deceased had long been a member. The services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. O.B. Hess. The pallbearers were Joseph Dunscomb of Windsor, Elmer Dunscomb of Sullivan, Denzil Dunscomb of Decatur, A.G. Wood of Villa Grove, F.B. Wood of Lovington and F.W. Wacaser of Lovington. All were nephews of Mrs. Foster, with the exception of Mr. Wacaser. Interment was in the Hewitt Cemetery. The committal service at the grave was spoken by Judge W.G. Cochran of Sullivan, a lifelong friend of the deceased and the bereft family.

Emma Sophia Dunscomb, daughter of Orren and Sohia Dunscomb, was born at Niles, Trumbell County, Ohio, on December 29, 1851. She was one of a family of seven children, all of whom have preceded her in death.

The mother passed away, leaving Emma and Emery, twins, only three weeks old. The mother of ex-President McKinley attended as nurse at the birth of Mrs. Foster and her twin brother. The father passed away in March, 1855, leaving the following children, who came to Illinois in the autumn of the same year: Elihu James, Mary S., Lucy Helen, John Harmon, Emery Orren and Emma Sophia.

On November 2, 1871, the deceased was united in marriage to Joseph Hays Foster, and to this union were born two daughters: Nora, wife of L.T. Anderson, and Lela, wife of George W. Harris. Three grandchildren are also left to mourn her departure: Joseph Foster Harris, Harold Dean Harris and Maxine Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Foster had always resided in the community, retiring from the farm about fifteen years ago, at which time they took up their residence in Lovington and it had since been here.

Notes for GEORGE W. HARRIS:
George W. Harris

The community was greatly shocked shortly after the noon hour Monday when it learned of the sudden and unexpected death of George W. Harris. He had been working in the morning and had made a few stops, as was his custom, on his way home to dinner. He had not complained of feeling ill to his friends but on arriving at home said he had heart-burn. He felt nauseated and did not care for the dinner and quietly passed away a few minutes later.

The deceased was born near here on September 13, 1873, the son of Joseph T. and Sarah (Jones) Harris, and had lived in this community all his life. He graduated from Lovington high school with the class of 1895. He was married to Miss Lela Foster in September 1901. To this union were born two sons, Joseph Foster Harris of Dearborn, Mich. and Sgt. Harold Dean Harris of Springfield, Mo. The latter is with the Armed Forces and is stationed at Camp Maxey, Texas. He is also survived by two sisters, Miss Lida Harris of Sullivan and Mrs. E.C. Kellar of Covina, Calif., and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the McMullin Funeral Home in Lovington, Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. Rev. James White, pastor of the Methodist church, of which he had been a faithful member for many years, had charge. Rev. H.R. Halfyard of Chatsworth gave the prayer and Rev. H.C. Munch of Macon, a lifelong friend of the deceased, gave a few remarks. The pallbearers were: N.W. Boggs, J.S. Strohm, R.E. Bowers, T.L. Conn, H.L. Stillens and C.C. Dickson. Interment was in the Hewitt Cemetery.

Mr. Harris will be greatly missed at church as he was regular in attendance and always sang in the choir. He had taught school earlier in life and then had farmed for a number of years but for several years, after moving into town, had been a painter. He was a splendid cook and enjoyed sharing his culinary efforts with his neighbors. He was very friendly to all and will be greatly missed in this community.

Notes for LAUREN THEODORE ANDERSON:
ANDERSON, LAUREN THEODORE

Lauren T. Anderson, 63, for many years a well known and highly esteemed citizen of this community, passed away Monday afternoon (April 3, 1939) at 1:00 o'clock. Death was due to coronary thrombosis. He was about his work as usual Monday morning and was stricken about 9 o'clock. The end came four hours later. Mr. Anderson had not been in robust health for a number of years and this winter had had an attack of the flu. It was not known that he had a heart ailment until he was stricken Monday morning. News of his death came as a shock to his many friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L.E. Kettelkamp. Joseph Munch sang, along with a quartet composed of Mr. Munch, Emery Gregory, K.V. Henninger and Ernest Cheever. Mrs. C.A. Gregory played the accompaniments. Burial is in the Hewitt Cemetery. The pallbearers were Herman Rakers, O.O. Dawson, S.H. Curry, H.P. Bicknell, A.L. Wilt and Charles Wood.

Lauren Theodore Anderson, son of James T. and Hattie B. (McClelland) Anderson, was born June 1, 1875, and departed this life at Lovington, Ill., aged 63 years, 10 months and 2 days. The deceased was united in marriage with Miss Emma Luttrell in 1898, who passed away in 1901. He was married to Miss Nora Foster of Lovington, Dec. 20, 1905. To this union were two children, Maxine, wife of Rev. H.R. Halfyard of Hamilton, Ill. and a son, born in December 1916, who died in infancy.

Mr. Anderson was engaged in farming for a number of years, specializing in pure breed livestock. After leaving the farm, he was on the staff of the Drovers Journal, nationally known livestock publication, but ill health forced him to give up the work. He later engaged in the poultry business in Lovington and also in the trucking business, in which the latter line of work he was engaged at the time of his death. He did contract work for the Standard Oil Company and also was manager of the Lovington Shipping Association, making weekly trips to the Indianapolis and Chicago markets for his clients. As a young man, Mr. Anderson took a business course at Stansburg (Mo) Normal School.

The deceased was also active in church, fraternal and community affairs. He served several terms as a member of the Dist. 37 Board of Education, had served on the board of the Lovington Building & Loan Association, was a director in the Lovington Grain Co. and was a member of the board of stewards of the Lovington Methodist Church, of which he had been an active member for many years.

Mr. Anderson was a member of Lovington Lodge No. 228, A.F. & A. M. and for 14 years served as its secretary. He was Master of the Lovington lodge during 1937-38, during which period the organization enjoyed the greatest wave of interest and prosperity it has shown in many years. He was well-known in Masonic circles throughout central Illinois and was regarded by his fellow Masons as one of the most enthusiastic members of the craft. He also was a member of Lovington Eastern Star Chapter.

Not only did Mr. Anderson show a friendly spirit to his fraternity, but he numbered his friends in every walk of life and in every station. He was kind-hearted and benevolent and, in his quiet and unassuming manner, had many times reached out a helping hand to a less fortunate brother. He will be greatly missing in the community.

The deceased leaves, besides his wife and daughter, two sisters, Mrs. Anna Cranor of St. Joseph, Mo., and Mrs. George Williams of Ridgeway, Mo., one brother who lives in Canada and one grand-daughter, Elizabeth Ann Halfyard.
